

BONALDO

Tonight, Tonight air single bed

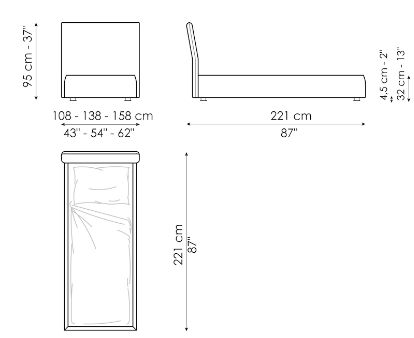

In the single version, Tonight is a bed that manages to best sum up the space in which it is placed. A comfortable invitation to rest, characterised by soft padding and a rounded design, defined by tailor-made attention to detail. Its proportions are carefully studied and the style is widely customisable in terms of details and finishes. Tonight is a soft single bed, visually as well, with well-balanced proportions between the different elements. An elegant and understated invitation to rest, perfect for those in constant search of essentiality. Tonight represents a furnishing choice capable of combining practicality with research into manufacturing details, a bed with a pleasant and welcoming image. The single bed frame with storage units provides a large and practical space as a base in which to store blankets, pillows and everything you need for the bedroom (Tonight open) or it can be light and dynamic in the version with metal feet (Tonight air). Tonight is also available in the Tonight fun version, with an openable base and supporting piston, for the insertion of drawers or a second bed base. The cover, available in fabric, leather or eco-leather, is completely removable. An ornamental border embellishes and emphasises the bed's perimeter and can be chosen in the same colour or in contrast with the cover.
